

PRESIDENT
SIR KEITH PETERS

2025 PROGRAMME

Imperial Hotel, Llandudno - Friday 4th April 2025
Professor Sir Keith Peters	The Closure of the MRC Clinical Research Centre at Northwick Park	Cambridge
Professor Sally Sheard	Learning from change: how history can help to develop an effective health policy	Liverpool
Professor Caroline Vout	The body: Greek and Roman	Cambridge
Mr Graham Kyle	The contagious diseases acts: Protection, prejudice, punishment.	Llansilin
Dr David Wilkinson	Barts, Druidstone and Pontypridd	Abergele

Llandrindod Wells – Thursday 19 th June 2025
Professor Sally Shuttleworth	Sir Clifford Allbutt, Davos and the Treatment of Tuberculosis	Oxford
Professor Alistair Compston	The Hexagon club: dining out on developments in neurology	Cambridge
Dr Tony Jewell	Julian Tudor Hart	Cambridge
Mr David Webster	Stimulate the Phagocytes	Cardiff
Mr Harvey White	Two literary figures of the 17 th Century: Sir Thomas Browne and Henry Vaughan	London

PRESIDENT
SIR KEITH PETERS

Cardiff – Friday 31st October 2025
Professor Tilli Tansley	MRC in Wales- early days: Pneumoconiosis Research	London
Professor Sir Leszek Borysiewicz	MRC in Wales-later: Cochrane and Elwood	Cambridge
Professor Nicholas Hopwood	The many births of a test-tube baby	Cambridge
Professor Sir James Smith	How lessons from frogs help mend a broken heart	London
Ms Harriet Tuckey	Griffith Pugh and the Ascent of Everest	London